Introductory Remarks.

While compiling this Catalogue for the press, it occurred to me, that some information regarding the establishment of the Fyzabad Museum, would be interest to the public, and with this objects in view, I have noted below a brief account of the origin of this institution and of the building where it is located.

2. The idea of a joint Town Hall and Museum is said to have originated with Mr. F. O. Mayne, C. B, when he was Commissioner of the Fyzabad Division, Later on, the Museum Collection was started in August 1867, with the sanction of the Chief Commissioner, by Mr. A. Thomson, * Inspector of Schools, and Mr. P. Carnegy Deputy Commissioner of Fyzabad.

3. Difficulty was at first experienced in getting a suitable room for exhibiting the Specimens, and it was not until the latter part of 1868, after the Museum Collection had been shifted several times, that the old Opium Godowns were obtained for this purpose.

4. This arrangement, however, did not quite satisfy Mr. Carnegy, and he determined to have a building erected especially for the Museum. Subscriptions were accordingly invited from the leading Talnqdars and a large amount of money was soon collected.

5. The credit of the design of the building is due to Mr. F. B. Henslowe, who was Municipal Engineer of Fyzabad, but the construction of the building was carried out by his successor, Mr. E. Hodges, during the years 1870-71. The Specimens were removed to the new building in May 1871, and the entire building, including a Town Hall and Committee room, was completed by the end of 1871. The edifice is said to have cost Rs 24,491-4-4 and is admirably adapted for the purposes for which it was constructed.

6. So far as funds admitted, books of reference were also purchased, for a library which was started in connection with the Museum. This small collection was further augmented by the present of a large number of books and reports, &c., by the Government of India. Subsequently the Taluqdars of Oudh, raised a large sum of money (about Rs. 5,000), to erect a suitable Memorial to the late Maharaja Sir Man Singh, K.C.S.I., in the shape of a library, and the whole of this amount was spent in purchasing Standard books relating to India.

7. The management of the Museum and library at first remained entirely in the hands of Mr. Carnegy, and on his departure, the control of the library is believed to have devolved upon Mr. Woodburn, C. S., (now His Honor Sir John Woodburn, K. C. S. I., Lieutenant--Governor of Bengal). The management was subsequently undertaken by successive Deputy Commissioners, with sometimes the Head Master * of the Government High School or the District Engineer to assist him, until the year 1895, when under G.O. No. $\frac{1841}{1-345}$ dated 19th July 1895, a Committee of Management of the Fyzabad Museum was constituted.

8. The present members of the Committee of Management (VIDE Commissioners' letter No. $\frac{3467}{XIII-47-49}$ dated 20th August 1917) are:—

G. C. W. Ingram Esqr., Dy. Commissioner, President
Jehangir Shaw Esqr.,
Babu Balak Ram
Maulvi Mohammed Faiq, B. A. LL B.,
Babu Dhani Ram

9. The Library remains open at stated times, for 6 hours every day, including Sundays (except on Wednesdays and Treasury Holidays) and it can be used by the public free of any charge.
